Mosque Open Day 2018

The Ahmadiyya Muslim Community invites the public on Saturday 27th October from 10am to 4pm, when it will open doors to all its mosques across Australia, celebrating National Mosque Open Day. As part of National Unity Week, this day celebrates diversity and brings communities together. The public will have the opportunity to take guided tours, see exhibitions on display, attend Q&A sessions and benefit from free books and literature. The Ahmadiyya Muslim Community prides itself in spreading a message of love, peace and brotherhood from its Mosques, using it as a centre for serving mankind.

The National President and Grand Imam of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community Australia, Mr. I. H. Kauser said:

"It is the perfect opportunity to meet local Aussie Muslims, ask them questions, take a mosque tour, make new friends and remove any misconceptions about Islam. If you are unable to attend this Saturday, our doors are always open, our mosques are built to connect with the public and in service of humanity."
