ROSEHILL TRAILER BOAT SHOW - OPENS TOMORROW

The Rosehill Trailer Boat Show opens to the public at 10AM tomorrow (Saturday), making a welcome return to Rosehill Gardens Racecourse, and across the weekend features everything the trailer boat enthusiast could wish for.

With more than 30 exhibitors and over 250 boats on display at the free-to-enter event, everything for the fun-loving or serious boatie will be on display, from family favourite bowriders to fishing tinnies and jet skis. Anyone who loves water skiing, fishing, wakeboarding or just cruising around with the family will find plenty to see and learn at the Rosehill Trailer Boat Show.

Also returning this year to the Rosehill Trailer Boat Show is Australia's largest fishing demonstration tank. At 12 metres long, the glass tank holds 14,500 litres of water with live fish, presenting an educational and entertaining fishing experience during the show. Given the popularity of fishing with trailer boat owners, fishing rods and tackle will also be featured at the show.

Along with the giant tank, NSW Roads and Maritime Services are also at the show, presenting their 'Lifejacket Self-Service Clinics'. The clinics are designed to instruct boaters on how to carry out a simple pre-wear check before use, and how to service their own inflatable lifejackets.

Admission is free and there's free onsite parking. Rosehill railway station is also adjacent to the show's entrance.
