2019 ADELAIDE BOAT SHOW – TRANSPORT AND PARKING

The Adelaide Boat Show (28 to 30 June) takes place at the Adelaide Convention Centre, conveniently located at the heart of the City. The Adelaide Riverbank Precinct is a hive of activity and where the City's cultural, sporting, education, medical, conference and entertainment zones merge, making it Australia's best-connected business events precinct, and the perfect home for the Adelaide Boat Show.

The recommended route to the show is via public transport. General transport details are available at adelaidemetro.com.au, where there is also a link to the handy MetroMATE transport app for use on smartphones.

Train

Catch a train into the city and it is just a short walk over to the Adelaide Convention Centre from the Adelaide Railway Station. You can check timetables for trains, buses and trams on the Adelaide Metro website.

Tram

The closest tram stop is located right in front of the historic Adelaide Railway Station, which is just a two-minute walk from the Convention Centre.

Bus

Adelaide's Free City bus service is a complimentary service for people who want to get around the city quickly, and stops right near the Adelaide Convention Centre (routes 98A, 98C). A network of public buses also connects the city to the rest of Adelaide.

Taxi

A Taxi Rank is positioned immediately in front of the Adelaide Casino on North Terrace. A short taxi trip to the airport takes 15 minutes and costs approximately $25.

Park 'n' Ride

Park 'n' Ride car parks offer visitors parking at convenient suburban locations, who then transfer to an Adelaide Metro public transport service to complete their journey. There are 72 Park 'n' Ride locations offering more than 10,800 parking spots.

The Boating Industry Association Ltd (BIA) is a not-for-profit industry organisation. It was formed through the amalgamation of the state Boating Industry Association bodies in New South Wales, South Australia, Queensland and the Northern Territory. Whilst its members are located throughout Australia, it concerns itself with National matters as well as State issues pertaining to the regions from where it originally was based. Member companies include businesses who manufacture, wholesale or retail products and services in the recreational and tourism boating sectors, as well as businesses pertaining to a number of commercial sectors. The Houseboat Hirers Association and the Charter Vessels Association were incorporated into the BIA as Divisions of the Association body. BIA members adhere to a voluntary Code of Practice and Code of Ethics. In addition, the BIA is involved in responding to issues relating to the recreational use of waterways, the environment, boating safety, access and public facilities.
