

---

Media release

Monday 15 June, 2020

Respected counsellor Maree Keel settles case against St Kevin's College

Maree Keel, former counsellor at St Kevin's College, has settled her claim against her former employer on confidential terms.

Ms Keel sends her best wishes to all students at St Kevin's College, including those students that accessed the Counselling services during her four years at the College.

Ms Keel wishes the College and their students every success for all future endeavours.

Ms Keel would also like to express her gratitude to her colleagues and the students and parents, both past and present, who supported her.

Maurice Blackburn Principal Josh Bornstein said: "It has been a privilege to represent Maree Keel, a brave and principled woman. I wish her well in the future."